Conflict of Interest Policy

A major strength of the Capitalize Albany Corporation (CAC) is the insight and knowledge provided by its Board of Directors. Due to their respective business/government positions, member of the CAC Board are active in the community and in business transactions within the City of Albany. Inevitably, perceived or real conflicts of interests and governance issues may arise. Conflict of interests (real and perceived) should not prevent an individual from serving as a director or staff member unless the extent of the interest is so significant that the potential for divided loyalty is present in a significant number of situations. CAC's Conflict of Interest policy requires that members of the Board of Directors and staff reveal any personal, family or business interests that they have, that, by creating a divided loyalty, could influence their judgment as it relates to CAC. A conflict of interest exists whenever an individual could benefit, directly or indirectly, from access to information or from a decision over which they might have influence, or, where someone might reasonably perceive there to be such a benefit and influence. Examples of possible conflict of interest situation with respect to CAC include, but are not limited to:

- A board or staff member has a personal or business relationship with the CAC as a supplier of goods or services or as a landlord or tenant
- A board or staff member has a direct or indirect interest financially in any contract entered into by CAC or accepts any gratuity, financial or otherwise, from any vendor of CAC
- A board or staff member has a personal or financial relationship with a client/borrower of CAC
- CAC is employing someone who is directly related to, or has a personal or financial relationship with, a board member or other staff member
- Conduct that is disloyal, disruptive, competitive, or damaging to CAC; for example, staff should not accept outside employment if that employment is to be conducted during the hours that the staff member is working for CAC, or if such employment conflicts with the effectiveness of the staff member's work for CAC
- A board or staff member is utilizing CAC information or services for their personal use
- A staff member is performing activities that are unrelated to CAC work during working hours
- A staff member of CAC shall not directly or indirectly, solicit any gift, or accept or receive any gift having a value of seventy-five dollars or more, whether in the form of money, services, loan, travel, entertainment, hospitality, thing or promise, or any other form.

Procedure for Handling an Actual, Perceived or Possible Conflict of Interest

1. The Board shall annually complete a “Conflict of Interest Declaration” which shall be reviewed by the CAC Governance/Audit Committees to determine if the potential for a conflict of interest exists. Additionally, prior to election of any new member of the Board, such member will complete/submit the declaration to the CAC Governance/Audit Committees.
2. In addition to the declaration submitted in accordance with #1 above, members of the Board and staff have a duty to disclose (as soon as practicable) any personal, family, or business interests that may, in the eyes of another person, influence their judgment.
3. The Board as a whole has a duty to disclose specific conflicts or interests to the CAC Governance Committee when that interest may affect the reputation or credibility of the organization, and to disclose the Board’s procedure for operating in the presence of such conflicts.
4. Board members and staff have a duty to recuse themselves from participating in any discussion and voting on matters on which they have a conflict of interest. Such exemptions should be recorded in minutes of meetings if normally kept.
5. Any business relationship between an individual (or a company where the individual is an owner or in a position of authority) and CAC, outside of their relationship as a Board or staff member, must be formalized in writing and approved by the Audit/Governance Committee and the full Board of Directors.
